To Future Host:

The Lawrenceburg Police Department had the privilege to Host "Tony Blauer's", "Be Your Own BODYGUARD" on July 9, 2016 here at our local Community Center. After meeting with Kim Maloy and her explaining what this program was about, I had no hesitation to be part of this.

This program is for all men and women to better protect themselves and to become aware of their surroundings on a daily basis. The program will make them feel more confident as they are now aware they could protect themselves if a circumstance would ever arise. After talking with a few of the participants who had taken this class, they felt better about themselves knowing they could defend off a perpetrator. This is also great public relations within your own community. I would recommend and be willing to host this type of self-defense training again for our community. This organization was great to work with and very professional.

Sincerely,

Donald Combs Jr
